

For Immediate Release

D&E ENTERTAINMENT PRODUCE JOHN FOGERTY WORLD WIDE THEATRICAL PREMIERE OF "THE LONG ROAD HOME: THE CONCERT" IN HIGH DEFINITION

D&E Entertainment Utilizes Digital Cinema Technology From Access Integrated Technologies And Comprehensive Marketing Campaign To Create A Unique Viewing Experience For Musical Content

Hollywood, CA (June 2, 2006) – On June 13th at 8pm, D&E Entertainment has been selected by John Fogerty, Fantasy Records and Concord Music Group to produce the theatrical premiere of John's new concert DVD, The Long Road Home: The Concert as it will be presented in High Definition and 5.1 Surround Sound. This premiere will take place simultaneously in eight cities, including New York (Brooklyn), Boston, Chicago, Nashville, Detroit, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego.

This Event enables John Fogerty to have a Theatrical Release Event to showcase the High Definition content that can only be experienced via digital delivery and DLP-Cinema[®] Projectors.

Evan Saxon, Co-President of D&E Entertainment said, "We're very pleased to have been selected to present the World Wide Theatrical Premiere of John Fogerty's concert film. Presenting "The Long Road Home—The Concert in High Definition on the big screen places John at the forefront of the latest technology. This will create a viewing experience for his fans unlike any other."

"If you are a Fogerty or Creedence fan you'll be treated to 26 of John's legendary hits presented in full widescreen HD digital 2K projection and 5.1 audio, a unique and rare event not to be missed" said Doug Kluthe, Co-President of D&E Entertainment.

"We are thrilled to bring fans the legendary voice and guitar of John Fogerty to the big screen, allowing everyone to experience this historical show the way it was meant to be seen – 50 feet wide, and cranked up to 11!"-Jeff Spector-Product Manager, Concord Music Group, Inc.

In 2005, John Fogerty's live show at the Wiltern Theatre in Los Angeles was captured and edited to include 105 minutes of electrifying Fogerty and Creedence classics. The Rock & Roll Hall of Famer has established one of the most important catalog of songs in rock history. Most of them are represented in this spectacular performance captured at the Wiltern including, "Born On The Bayou", "Who'll Stop The Rain", "Bad Moon Rising", "Have You Ever Seen The Rain", "Travelin' Band", "Déjà Vu All Over Again," "Fortunate Son", "Green River", "Almost Saturday Night", "Rockin All Over The World", "Centerfield" and "Proud Mary" just to name a few. John is one of America's most celebrated, influential and treasured singer/songwriters and this show proves once again that he remains one of rock's most dynamic and explosive performers.

"The Long Road Home: The Concert" DVD will be released on June 13th, 2006.

D&E Entertainment contracted with Access Integrated Technologies (AMEX: AIX) (www.accessitx.com), the leading provider of digital content management and distribution services for the Hollywood studios for its digital content delivery system and back office management services.

About D&E Entertainment:

D&E Entertainment is a partnership between entertainment industry executives Doug Kluthe and Evan Saxon. Together they have been involved in the marketing of high profile tours and directing live concerts captured for video and DVD. D&E's experience and understanding of the entertainment community have enabled them to continually work with key artist managers, record labels, music retailers, movie theatres, advertisers and the film community. For content holders, D&E have the ability to create a marketing campaign that harnesses the power of radio, retail, press, online and our in-theatre partners to enhance the visibility and value of their client's content.

For more information:

Evan Saxon

D&E Entertainment

6464 Sunset Blvd Suite 640 Hollywood, CA 90028

323.464.6680

EvanSaxon@DandEntertainment.com