The Killers 'Live From The Royal Albert Hall'

Big Screen Premiere for The Killers presented in over 130 Digital Cinemas in North America November 5

Hollywood, CA (October 29) On July 6, 2009, The Killers set out to create a gift for their fans with a spectacular concert experience at the uniquely majestic venue, The Royal Albert Hall in London. Filmed with pristine production values, in high-definition, for their first ever official DVD release The Killers perform their greatest hits in front of an enthusiastic sold out audience. Now fans across the county can share in this live show as The Killers 'Live At The Royal Albert Hall' is being presented in over 130 digital theatres across America on November 5.

With over 13 million album sales worldwide The Killers have received seven nods from the Grammys, and won a variety of MTV, BRIT, and NME awards as well as having sold out prestigious venues such as Madison Square Garden and the Hollywood Bowl in America.

'Live At The Royal Albert Hall' transports the fan to the show in London and features all the favourites including 'Somebody Told Me', 'Sam's Town (acoustic)', 'I Can't Stay', 'Mr. Brightside', 'When You Were Young' and 17 other songs. In addition, the DVD features bonus performances of the band and behind the scenes footage. The film was produced by Jim Parsons and directed by Dick Carruthers.

'Live At The Royal Albert Hall' is distributed by D&E Entertainment (www.DandEentertainment.com) and will premiere for a special run in digital cinemas in cities throughout North America including: New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Boston, Detroit, Dallas, Fort Worth, Denver, Houston, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, San Diego, Phoenix, Raleigh, Las Vegas, Indianapolis, Columbus, Madison, Minneapolis, and many other locations.

"This film is amazing and we're very pleased to bring The Killers to the big screen here in America. 'Live At The Royal Albert Hall' is a treat for the band's fans as it is a fantastic concert experience captured beautifully in HD. Now fans who have not had a chance to see The Killers live can do so at their local theatre with the best seat in the house. At D&E we're able to bring these films and entertainment opportunities to our fantastic theatre partners and filmmakers while servicing consumers who are looking for more than the typical film fare at their local cinema." stated Evan Saxon and Doug Kluthe of D&E Entertainment.

The film has a running time of 90 minutes.
